From Tuesday Auguſt 2, to Saturday Auguſt 6, 1763.

St. James's, Auguſt 6.

THE following Addreſs of the Truſtees of the College of Philadelphia, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Rev. Dr. Smith, Provoſt of that College, accompanied by Mr. Inglis, one of the Truſtees, and Mr. Powell, one of the Graduates, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Truſtees of the College, Academy and Charitable School in the City of Philadelpnia in Pennſylvania.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

AMID the joyous Acclamations of a grateful People, exulting in a Happineſs derived from your Majeſty's moſt wiſe, juſt, and gentle Adminiſtration, we your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Truſtees of the College, Academy and Charitable School in the City of Philadelphia, beg Leave to lay our ſincere and humble Acknowledgments at your Majeſty's Feet, and to expreſs the deep Senſe we entertain of your Royal condeſcending Regard to the Inſtitution under our Government and Direction.

Rendered incapable, by the Ravages of War, of proſecuting our charitable Deſign, which was begun, and hitherto been carried on, by private Benevolence, we found ourſelves under a Neceſſity of applying to the Mother Country for ſuch Aſſiſtance as we failed of obtaining here. And to give due Weight and Authority to our Application, we humbly put ourſelves under your Majeſty's moſt gracious Protection, by ſoliciting your Letters Patent for a general Collection throughout the Kingdom. 'Tis with the warmeſt Glow of Gratitude that we reflect upon the Princely Condeſcenſion with which your Majeſty vouchſafed us this Royal Grant, and recommended it to the Encouragement of all your loving Subjects by an Inſtance of your own Royal Munificence

But whilſt we are thus imperfectly expreſſing our unfeigned Acknowledgments of your Majeſty's Royal Goodneſs, permit us, moſt gracious Sovereign, to embrace this Opportunity of preſenting our hearty Congratulations to your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort, our gracious Queen, upon the Increaſe of your Royal Line, by the auſpicious Birth of a Prince of Wales. Long may your Majeſty be preſerved to bleſs your affectionate People by your mild and prudent Government, and to inſtruct and animate your Royal Heir, by the Wiſdom of your Counſels, and the Luſtre of your Example.

And as the Eyes of the whole World are fixed in Admiration upon your Majeſty, and Acknowledgments and Applauſes are poured forth before your Throne from every Part of your extenſive Dominions, for reſtoring Peace to contending Nations, for putting a Stop to the Effuſion of Chriſtian Blood, and relieving your Subjects from the Burden of a long and expenſive War, we humbly crave your Majeſty's favourable Acceptance of our unfeigned Congratulations upon this glorious Occaſion. Situated as we are in the Center of a Territory, which has long been the Theatre of Deſolation and Bloodſhed, we cannot but feel a large Share of that General Joy, which is now diffuſed throughout your Majeſty's American Dominions, upon the Concluſion of a Peace ſo honourable to our Nation, ſo peculiarly beneficial to us. By this auſpicious Event, we are prompted not only to look upon your Majeſty, as a Conqueror, triumphing over your Enemies, and giving Strength and Increaſe to your Subjects and Dominions, but to revere you as a bleſſed Inſtrument, in the Hands of Providence, of planting at once the Chriſtian and the Britiſh Banners, the Banners of Liberty and true Religion, in the remoteſt Corners of this Weſtern World, among Nations, wandering beneath the Night of Pagan Error, or deluded by falſe Principles into Popiſh Slavery and Superſtition. To conquer and to civilize has hitherto been deemed the higheſt Effort of human Heroiſm. But to compleat the Glory of your Majeſty's Reign, Heaven ſeems to have reſerved it for your Majeſty, not to conquer and civilize only, but, by ſpreading throughout your wide extended Conqueſts the Knowledge of Chriſt's Kingdom, even to bleſs Millions of Mankind, with the Comforts of true Religion, and the Goſpel Means of Salvation.

Encouraged and animated by theſe Proſpects and Conſiderations, and bound by all the Ties of Duty and Gratitude, we truſt that nothing will be wanting, on our Part, to render our Inſtitution eminently ſerviceable for theſe exalted Purpoſes; and it ſhall be our earneſt Endeavour, as far as our Influence extends, carefully to provide that the Principles of true Religion, good Government, and uſeful Learning, together with a Love and Veneration for the Britiſh Conſtitution, and an unſhaken Loyalty and Affection

Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and your illuſtrious Houſe, be conſtantly inculcated in the Minds of the Youth placed under our Inſpection.

Signed by Order and in Behalf of the Truſtees, at a Meeting held in the College Hall, at Philadelphia, the 27th of May, 1763, and ſealed with their Public Seal.

Richard Peters, Preſident of the Board.

They were moſt graciouſly received; and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, of the Province of Maſſachuſet's Bay, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Egremont, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, to be laid before the King, has, by his Lordſhip, been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives, of your Majeſty's Province of Maſſachuſet's Bay, in General Court aſſembled.

WE your Majeſty's moſt loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Governor, Council, and Houſe of Repreſentatives of the Province of Maſſachuſet's Bay, ſenſible of the great Bleſſing of Peace, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on the Reſtoration thereof, to the ſeveral Parts of your Majeſty's Dominions, after a long and bloody War.

The Wealth and Power accruing to Great Britain from the growth and flouriſhing State of her Colonies, raiſed the Envy of France, and cauſed her to make Encroachments upon your Majeſty's Territories in America, to form, and to begin the Execution of Schemes for reducing or extirpating your faithful Subjects. Repeated adverſe Events, at the Opening of the War, threatened us either with the Loſs of our Poſſeſſions, acquired with great Labour and Expence, or with a greater Evil, the Loſs of thoſe invaluable Liberties which your Majeſty's Subjects enjoy in every Part of the Britiſh Empire.

But God in His Providence mercifully interpoſed; the Scene was changed; our Enemies have been removed from their Encroachments; their Deſigns have been fruſtrated and rendered deſperate; and great Acquiſitions have been made of their Poſſeſſions upon this Continent, which they have been compelled to cede to your Majeſty. The Arms of Britain have often prevailed over the Arms of France; but no former War has terminated with ſo honourable and advantageous a Peace.

Permit us then, moſt gracious Sovereign, to tender our humble and hearty Thanks for your Paternal Care of us your American Subjects, in protecting us from the Ravages of the Enemy during the War, and in procuring, by the late Treaty of Peace, Conceſſions equal to our greateſt Hopes.

We are bound to contribute to the Happineſs of your Majeſty's Reign as far as the Remoteneſs of our Situation and Limits of our Sphere will admit; and it ſhall be our conſtant Endeavour to evidence our Gratitude by every Expreſſion of Duty and Loyalty in our Power.

Fra. Bernard, Governor.
By Order of the Council, Andrew Oliver, Secretary.
By Order of the Houſe of Repreſentatives, Timothy Ruggles, Speaker.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Juries, Gentlemen and Clergy, of the County of Suffolk, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Charles Bunbury, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Grand Juries, Gentlemen and Clergy of the County of Suffolk, aſſembled at the Aſſizes at Bury St. Edmund's, the 28th of July, 1763.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects of your County of Suffolk, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our ſincereſt Congratulations on the Reſtoration of Peace to theſe your Native Kingdoms.

We cannot but acknowledge, with Hearts full of Gratitude, your Majeſty's gracious Intentions towards your People, in this as well as the many other Inſtances of your Goodneſs ſince your happy Acceſſion: Peace, more eſpecially an Honourable and Advantageous Peace, muſt needs be welcome to your Subjects in general; the Land Owners in particular have Reaſon to rejoyce in an Event, which under proper Management muſt relieve them from Preſſures becoming every Day during the War more and more grievous: The Glory of a ſucceſsful War belongs properly to your Majeſty, the Burden is principally our own, yet chearfully acquieſced in ſo long as it was found neceſſary, and much lightened we confeſs by our uninterrupted Triumphs over an encroaching Enemy.

We doubt not but the ſame Zeal which has inſpired your Majeſty to introduce the Bleſſings of Peace, will alſo prompt you to encourage and promote the ſalutary Conſequences which ſhould naturally flow from it; and we truſt that neither the Efforts of reſtleſs and diſappointed Ambition, nor the fouler deſigns of factious Malice, will ſo far prevail over the Minds of your faithful Subjects as to give any real Diſcompoſure to your Royal Breaſt, or ever ſhake that Firmneſs and Rectitude which has ſo remarkably diſtinguiſhed the Commencement, and we have full Confidence, under the Bleſſing of God, will add Luſtre to the Cloſe of a Glorious Reign many many Years to come.

As far as depends upon ourſelves, and we hope too upon our Poſterity, nothing ſhall be wanting that may contribute to ſo important a Purpoſe, to protect your Sacred Perſon, againſt the Violence of artful and daring Men, to enable you to govern upon the Principles you have ever approved, of publick Spirit and diſintereſted Policy: In ſhort, to confirm you honoured and eſteemed abroad, beloved and happy at Home, ſhall be the End and Aim of our conſtant Endeavours, being well aſſured we can no other way more effectually conſult our own Happineſs and that of our Fellow Subjects.
